

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

We respect and protect your privacy. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have questions or concerns.

Definitions

Personal Data

“Personal data,” where used in this Privacy Policy, shall mean any information or set of information that identifies an individual, or could be used by or on behalf of Greater Things Ministries to identify an individual. “Personal data” shall include any data about an identified or identifiable individual that are within the scope of data protection legislation and recorded in any form. Personal data does not include information which is anonymized.

We may refer to your personal data as “your information” and may sometimes collectively refer to handling, collecting, protecting, and storing your personal data as “processing” such personal data.

Donations/Payments

“Donations,” and “Payments” where used in this Privacy Policy shall mean all monetary funds provided to Greater Things Ministries through the “Website,” mail, or other means.

Website

“Website,” “the website,” “this website,” and “our website,” or “site” shall refer to www.greatherthingsministries.org.

Scope of this Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy applies to personal data submitted to, or collected by us through this website, for Greater Things Ministries’ various donation and sharing applications and information request forms, and any and all correspondence with Greater Things Ministries employees via telephone, email, facsimile, mail, written correspondence, or any other means.

Information We Collect

We collect personal information about you when you:

Make donations, and/or provide contact information to us via telephone, email, facsimile, mail, written correspondence, through the website, or by any other means. The information you consent to provide may include your name, contact and billing information, and transaction and payment information.

Payment Information

When you donate, we will also collect transaction information, which may include your credit card, debit card, or Automated Clearing House (ACH) information, home, billing and mailing address, donation history, and other payment-related information (“Payment Information”). We describe how payment Information may be collected and processed below.

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

Technical, Usage, and Location Information

We automatically collect information on how you interact with the website, such as the IP address from which you access the website, date and time, information about your browser, operating system and computer or device, and pages viewed and items clicked. We may also collect location information, including location information automatically provided by your computer or device. We use cookies and similar technologies to collect some of this information.

Third Party Platforms

We may collect information when you interact with other content on third-party sites or platforms, such as social networking sites. This may include information such as “likes”, follows, mentions, comments, and messages, profile information gathered from social networking sites, or the fact that you viewed or interacted with our content.

How We Use Your Information

Any of the information we collect from you may be used in one of the following ways:

- To process transactions. Your information, whether public or private, will not be sold, exchanged, or transferred.
- To send periodic emails. The email address you provide for donation processing may be used to send you information and updates pertaining to our ministries such as newsletters, recent developments, prayer needs, testimonials, etc.;
- To respond to requests for information or in delivery of our donations. Your information will be used to provide you with the specific content requested;
- To contact you in connection with donation processing, including technical support;
- To analyze the use of our website;
- In any other way we may describe when you provide the data; and/or
- For any other purpose with your consent

Note: If at any time you would like to unsubscribe from receiving future update emails, please notify us and we will take you off our email list.

Our Legitimate Reasons for Collecting Information

We collect information about you to process donations and update you on our ministries. In order for us to best provide this information to you (and to help make it feasible for us to do so), it is essential that we are able to collect and use the information as described in this Policy. This means that the data collection is largely necessary for fulfilling the nonprofit relationship we have with you.

Furthermore, the law processing of your personal data is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests that we pursue, which are to:

- run and administer our nonprofit organization;
- to discharge our legal obligations to store and disclose information where necessary;
- to evaluate, to develop and improve communication with our supporters;

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

- for any necessary purpose in order to comply with any legal obligation to which we are subject.

Disclosure and Transfer of your Information

We use affiliated service providers to help us process donations and run our nonprofit organization subject to strict confidentiality agreements. These companies are authorized to use your personal information only as necessary to provide these donations to us.

We will disclose data if we believe in good faith such disclosure is necessary (1) to comply with relevant laws or to respond to subpoenas or warrants or legal process served on us (though we reserve the right to take action on behalf of our users to defend their right to anonymity when we believe there is a legitimate basis to do so); (2) when we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to prevent physical harm or financial loss or in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual illegal activity; (3) as we otherwise deem necessary and is permitted by applicable laws to protect and defend the rights or property of us, our supporters, or third parties; or (4) as permitted under applicable laws to meet national security and similar requirements; (5) in order to permit us to pursue available remedies or limit the damages that we may sustain; (6) to respond to an emergency.

Our Use of Cookies

We use various technologies to collect and store information, including cookies, pixel tags, local storage, such as browser web storage or application data caches, databases, and server logs.

Cookies are small files that a site or its service provider transfers to your computers hard drive through your Web browser (if you allow) that enables the sites or service providers systems to recognize your browser and capture and remember certain information.

We use cookies for many purposes. We use cookies to help us remember and process donations and compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interaction so that we can offer better site experiences and tools in the future. We may contract with third-party service providers to assist us in better understanding our site visitors. These service providers are not permitted to use the information collected on our behalf except to help us conduct and improve our business.

If you prefer, you can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies via your browser settings. Like most websites, if you turn your cookies off, some of our online tools may not function properly. However, you can still donate over the telephone, mail, or by contacting us.

Disclosure of Information to Outside Parties

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information other than to those entities for which you have provided consent. This does not include trusted third parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our ministry, or fulfilling our donations from you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or other's rights, property, or safety. However, non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, communication or other uses.

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

Some affiliates of Greater Things Ministries have their own websites with their own unique privacy policies, tailored to the services they provide. We encourage you to read those privacy policies carefully when you visit those affiliated sites.

When using third-party vendors or agents to which Greater Things Ministries intends to transfer personal data, Greater Things Ministries shall perform adequate due diligence to help ensure the security of such information. However, Greater Things Ministries will not be liable if it can prove that it is not responsible for the event that caused damage and instead another party is responsible for the event that caused the damage.

Third Party Links

Occasionally, at our discretion, we may include or offer third party information on website. These third party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

Steps We Take to Ensure Your Privacy and Protect Your Information

The security of your personal data is important to us. We use generally accepted, industry standard tools and techniques to protect your personal data against unauthorized disclosure. However, no method of transmission over the Internet, or method of electronic storage, is 100% secure. Therefore, while we strive to use commercially reasonable means to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information when you donate.

We use encryption to keep your data private while in transit. We review our information collection, storage, and processing practices, including physical security measures, to prevent unauthorized access to our systems. We restrict access to personal information to Greater Things Ministries employees, contractors, and federal state or local agents who need that information in order to process the information. Anyone with this access is subject to strict contractual confidentiality obligations and may be disciplined or terminated if they fail to meet these obligations.

Perimeter Security

We use firewalls to secure the perimeter of our information network and monitor our systems regularly.

Data Security

Greater Things ministries is committed to ensuring the security of your information. We have implemented reasonable electronic, physical and procedural safeguards designed to help protect against the loss, unauthorized access or disclosure, alteration or destruction of the information under our control. We or our third parties use encryption systems, when collecting or transferring sensitive data such as credit card, debit card or ACH information. Certain features of our website may require an username and password or similar unique identifier.

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

Your Rights in Relation to Your Personal Information

At any time, you have the right:

- To be informed about the processing of your personal data (i.e. for what purposes, what types, to what recipients it is disclosed, storage periods, any third party sources from it was obtained, confirmation of whether we undertake automated decision-making, including profiling, and the logic, significance and envisaged consequences);
- To request access to or a copy of any personal data which we hold about you;
- To rectify your personal data, if you consider that it is inaccurate;
- To ask us to delete your personal data, if you consider that we do not have the right to hold it;
- To withdraw consent to our processing of your personal data (to the extent such processing is based on previously obtained consent);
- To ask us to stop or start sending you marketing messages at any time;
- To restrict processing of your personal data;
- To permit data portability (moving some of your personal data elsewhere) in certain circumstances;
- To object to your personal data being processed in certain circumstances; and not to be subject to a decision based on automated processing and to have safeguards put in place if you are being profiled based on your personal data;
- To lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
- To know the source from where your personal information originated;
- To access (or obtain from us a confirmation if your personal information is being processed by us) the purpose of processing, recipients of your personal information;
- To submit a subject access request. If a request is received, the following information will be provided:
 - - What personal information pertaining to the user is being processed
 - Why it's being processed
 - Who has access to it
 - How it is being used to make automated decisions
 - What processes are using this information
 - The request for access will be responded to within 30 days and will include a copy of your personal information

How Long Do We Retain Your Personal Information?

We will retain your personal information for as long as is needed to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Policy, unless a longer retention period is necessary, required or permitted by law for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific/historical research or statistical purposes (depending on circumstances, compatible processing purposes may include compliance/legal consideration, tax, accounting, security & fraud prevention or other legal requirements).

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

We may send you direct marketing communications, and retain your contact information necessary for this purpose (provided that you have consented to receiving them), for as long as you do not unsubscribe from receiving the same from us.

Consent to Transfer

The website for Greater Things Ministries is operated in the United States. If you are located in the European Union, Canada, or elsewhere outside of the United States, please be aware that any information you provide to use will be transferred to the United States. By using the website or providing us with your information, you consent to this transfer.

Children's Information

We do not knowingly collect information from children under the age of 18 and we do not target our websites to children under 18. If we determine that an individual under the age of 18 has submitted information to this site, we delete that information.

CAN-SPAM Act

In accordance with the CAN-SPAM Act, we will:

- Not use false or misleading subjects or email addresses;
- Identify the message as an advertisement in a reasonable way;
- Include the physical address of our business or site headquarters;
- Monitor third-party email marketing services for compliance, if one is used;
- Honor opt-out/unsubscribe messages quickly;
- Allow users to unsubscribe by using the link at the bottom of each email.

Your Consent

By using our website, you consent to our Privacy Policy.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

Greater Things Ministries reserves the right to make changes to this site and privacy policy at any time. If any of these conditions shall be deemed invalid, void, or for any reason unenforceable, that condition shall be deemed severable and shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any remaining condition.

Contacting Us

Greater Things Ministries Privacy Policy

You may contact us using the information below if you have any questions about this Privacy Policy.

www.Greaterthingsministries.org

563 Holden Hill Road
Langdon, NH 03602
greaterthngsministries@outlook.com